Adverbs of Manners, Place and Time

Rule: Adverbs, or adverbial phrases, of manner, place, and time answer the questions "How?", "Where", and "When?" actions take place. They are normally placed in that order after the verb whether or not all three adverbs are used. He usually works hard (how?) at home (where?) all the evening (when?). Where there are two adverbs of manners, or place, or time the more detailed of the two comes first. Example: David sometimes meets a friend for lunch in the doorway (place 1) of the nearest café (place 2) at a quarter to one (time 1) on Mondays (time 2).

A) Put the adverbs in brackets into their normal positions in the following sentences.

1. They sat talking (all the evening; contentedly; in the garden).
2. She put the hot dish down (on the table; when the bell went for lunch; quickly).
3. He often plays the piano (for hours; quietly; in the evening).
4. The competitors waited (near the finishing post; impatiently; after the race).
5. David played tennis (most of the afternoon; energetically; yesterday; by the river; on the tennis courts).
6. Mary is going to France (directly after term; on an exchange visit).
7. David hopes to go to the United States (next year; after his examinations are over).
8. Did you come all the way (today; from Land's End; by car)?
9. The examination candidates worked (last Thursday afternoon; hard; from 2 till 5 p.m.).
10. The competitors waited (near the finishing post; impatiently; after the race).

B) Put the parts of the sentences in the right order:

- 1) Mark / quite well / speaks / English.....
- 2) They won / easily / the game.....
- 3) Her car / she drives / slowly.....
- 4) He goes / every morning / to work.....
- 5) We ate / quickly / our lunch.....
- 6) Quietly / the door / they closed.....

C) Is the word order Right or Wrong? Correct the ones that are wrong:

- 1) We went to the zoo in London.....
- 2) He ate his breakfast quickly.....
- 3) I go tomorrow to the doctor's.....
- 4) She played the piano beautifully last night.....
- 5) I posted in the evening your letters.....
- 6) Tom studied the lesson carefully last night.....

D) Choose the right answer:

1. If he had driven...
 a) fast
 b) fortunately
 c) slowly
 ...he wouldn't have had that accident.
2. She's such a kind lady. When I arrived last night, she welcomed me very....
 a) hotly.
 b) warmly.
 c) coldly.
3. She's very lazy. She...
 a) nearly
 b) wrongly
 c) hardly
 ...works.
